JET THRUST DISCOVERIES & UPDATES

63V21171 This car was received as an estate gift to the Studebaker National Museum and when up for auction through Hagerty and sold for $15,515. The proceeds will benefit the museum.

63VC3771 A well-known Hamilton-assembled 1963 R2 G.T. Hawk has now left California and has since taken up residence in Montana. It is one of 19 R2 G.T. Hawks that were assembled in Hamilton in 1963. It was previously owned by Keith Wahl when these photos were taken.

